

YACHT CLUB CALA D'OR

WEDDING REVIEW

Stephen & Danielle – June 2013

From Karen, Danielle's mum – taken from our Tripadvisor page

If you are thinking of getting married abroad please do consider this venue. The team of Claire, wedding coordinator based in the UK nothing too much trouble, Sergio, Yacht Club Manager so obliging makes you feel very special and Silvia, lady who will do everything from flowers, room decoration to being with the bride on the day giving her support, she is amazing.

My daughter and son-in-law decided to get married in Cala d'Or as his family have a holiday home there so know the area well. But I would recommend this venue to anyone who has not been there before as a lot of our guests said they would definitely be going back to Cala d'Or.

Even though the venue was abroad we were able to put a lot of personal touches to the day it was definitely as they advertise a bespoke wedding. Groom arrived by boat, we took the cake over ourselves made by bride's grandmother and decorated by grooms sister. We made our own favours with personalised ribbon and all the colours in the room, flowers, sashes, crystals etc were coordinated with the bridesmaids dresses by Silvia at the Yacht Club. Claire has contacts for cake etc if you prefer as I said nothing is too much trouble and I'd email late at night and I'd have a reply if not instantly by the morning, we even Skyped a month prior to the wedding just to clarify the itinerary on the day, she ran through minute by minute - excellent.

I know this review is supposed to be about the restaurant but obviously by having a wedding there we did eat the food and it was superb. I've even been there on a lunchtime when the food, service and value for money were second to none. Don't be put off by thinking it is an exclusive, posh Yacht Club we have always found it very friendly and inviting.
