Lucas' Recipe Corner

Toast of Majorcan Mushrooms (serves 4 people)

Ingredients

- 4 slices Majorcan bread
- 300g Majorcan cheese
- 8 oven roasted tomatoes
- 600g mushrooms of the island*
- Fresh rosemary twigs
- 200ml fresh cream
- 2 cloves garlic
- Olive oil extra virgin

For the roasted tomatoes: Cut the tomato into segments, place on an oven proof plate and sprinkle with a little sugar and salt. Bake in the oven at 100° for approximately one hour. Put to one side.

For the sauce: Cut the Majorcan cheese into cubes and in a blender mix with the cream. Slowly warm the resulting sauce over a Bain Mari, until achieving the consistency desired. Put to one side.

Procedure: Lightly toast the slices of bread with a drizzle of olive oil, and put to one side. Fry the mushrooms in olive oil, with a sprig of rosemary and crushed garlic. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Layer the mushrooms on the toasted bread with the baked tomatoes, spoon the cheese sauce over the top and finish with a sprig of fresh rosemary.

*Suggested Mallorca mushrooms: Tofona, Colmenilla, Murgolla, Oreja de liebre black or white, Taronja, or Robellón. This last is not native of the island but an excellent choice.

We are pleased to introduce our new Restaurant Manager, Christian. Christian worked for 8 years in Germany in the Food & Beverage industry before moving to Austria where he was Restaurant Manager at a resort in the Austrian Alps. He then moved to Spain where his most recent job was Restaurant Manager in a 5 star hotel complex in the Marbella area.

Please join me in welcoming Christian to the Yacht Club. We hope you all get the chance to meet him in the very near future and any suggestions or feedback you have, he would be delighted to hear.
